

[FINAL REFLECTION]

What was the purpose of this experience?

- To be able to identify my personal values & learn how to express them in words.
- To gain personal growth, develop skills that I didn't know I had & also to reset my priorities straight.
- Redefine the importance of community service & my engagement in the community I am in.

What happened to me during this experience?

- I changed a lot of my goals. I have decided to regain the courage I had & begin to challenge the process within my own organization. I want to inspire <sup>the</sup> my sisters into changing how things are right now.
- I grew a lot within this experience deciding to make choices I never thought I could have made.

• Redefined the important things in life. I essence I don't want to be a better leader but just a better person.
What happened to us during this experience?

• We bonded in a way that is undescrivable. Being in the community for a long time I have grown many friendships & connected with many people, but never like this. I personally can relate this to orientation, there is just always going to be a connection & a bond b/w us all.

[FINAL REFLECTION]

How did I connect to and/or impact the Tuscaloosa Community during this experience?

I know that a lot of people were grateful to have us helping them & I feel that that was a way I impacted the community.

I connected w/ the community b/c in some crazy way I was able to feel & understand the pain they had gone through even though I didn't experience the tornado attack.

What am I looking forward to upon my return to my campus/my community?

Being a changing force within my organization & my greek community. Inspiring those around me to be better people & help them see not to take other people for granted.

I defiantly want to be more of a voice for my hispanic community.

As a result of this experience, what do I want to do differently in my life?

Be more selfless

Be more involved w/ in the important communities in my life.

Be more grateful about those things around me.

Cherish everything & everyone I know.

Creating a visionboard