RE: Curriculum Changes to the Master of Fine Arts in Visual Arts

The Department of Visual Arts and Art History was approved to add concentrations to the Master of Fine Arts in Visual Arts beginning Fall 2012. The MFA in Visual Arts will offer concentrations in the following areas: Ceramics, Drawing, Graphic Design, Painting, Photography, Printmaking, Sculpture and Book Arts. Attached is an outline of the curriculum changes that the Department is proposing to facilitate delivery of this program. These program changes can be delivered utilizing the current faculty members and existing resources within the Department.
