Greek Week Code of Conduct

Due: February 3rd 2010 at 4 p.m.

All student teams shall be required to follow all policies outlined in the Student Code of Conduct, which can be found online at www.fau.edu.

Any team whose members are deemed by any member of the Greek Week Planning Committee to be acting in an unprofessional manner, including but not limited to disorderly conduct, vandalism, theft, unauthorized entry, verbal or physical threats toward any of the Greek Week Planning Committee, will be referred to the Greek Life Coordinator to decide appropriate action, which may include disqualification from Greek Week.

Any team that violates the Student Code of Conduct may be referred to the Dean of Student Affairs Office, in addition to disqualification from Greek Week.

Any and all issues regarding a team's eligibility and/or disciplinary actions are ultimately up to the discretion of the Greek Week Advisor, Sean O'Brien, based on any alleged violation referred by the Greek Week Planning Committee.

It is the obligation of each team to read and fully understand this rules packet. The packet will be considered FINAL on March 3th, 2010.

The agreement below must be signed by all member organization of the team's Greek Week Representative and Chapter President if they wish to compete in Greek Week 2010.

All dates, times, rules, and regulations are subject to change.

We encourage the Greek Week Representative(s) to stress the severity of adhering to the Code of Conduct to your team. Please represent Florida Atlantic University with dignity and respect.

We, the undersigned, have thoroughly read the 2010 Greek Week Rules Packet and agree to adhere to all the Rules and Regulations pertaining to the 2010 Greek Week Rules Packet.

Greek Week Policies & Rules

- Only members listed on your chapter's ICS roster will be eligible to participate in ANY Greek Week event.
- All roster members must have a valid FAU form of identification present at the time of check-in. This is limited to your FAU ID.
- Winners of each Greek Week 2010 event and the over-all champion will be announced at the Up 'til Dawn Finale event Friday March 26th, 2010.
- Greek Week 2010 is designated to promote Greek Unity. All un-sportsman-like conduct will not be tolerated during any event. Any of these actions can be grounds for disqualification or loss of points. All penalties will be assessed by the Greek Week 2010 Advisor and the Office of Greek Life. Do not forget that you are representing the FAU Fraternity & Sorority Community.
- Any questions regarding Greek Week 2010 or a specific event should be directed to the Greek Week 2010 Committee members through your team representative.
 - Questions regarding points or penalties should be directed to the Greek Week 2010 Executive Director or Assistant Executive Director.
 - Complaints can be made by filling out an official Greek Week 2010 Complaint Form available in this packet on the Greek Week website at: www.fau.edu
- Changes regarding dates, times, rules, etc will be expressed on the Greek Week Website. All teams will be notified as soon as possible through their team representatives.
- All dates, times, rules, and regulations are subject to change.
- Decisions made by the Greek Week 2010 Executive Board are FINAL!
- Attendance is not required at any Greek Week 2010 event. Only those necessary to participate in an event are required. Education Night is the only night where any team will receive attendance points. Alumni attendance will not count toward attendance points.
- Throughout Greek Week all Florida Atlantic University policies and procedures will be enforced. Any student who violates those policies will be referred to the Dean of Students office.
- THE GREEK WEEK PLANNING COMMITTEE WILL NOT TOLERATE COMPLAINTS in reference to the official rules/policies. THEY VOLUNTEERED TO COORDINATE THE WEEKS EVENTS, NOT TO HANDLE EVERYONE'S INDIVIDUAL ISSUES.
- The Office of Greek Life will be the only group who will have the authority to disqualify a team from an event completely, known as "Complete DQ" or DQ. In the event of a complete DQ, attendance and placement points will not be awarded.
- Every chapter must have a signed code of conduct form on file before they are allowed to participate in any event associated with Greek Week.

Greek Feud

Monday, March 22nd, 2010 12:00 p.m.

Greek Feud Rules and Guidelines:

- Teams of four (4) members will check-in with a designated member of the Greek Week Planning Committee beginning 30 minutes before the event.
- Will begin promptly at 12 p.m. Monday March 22th.
- Teams must consist of two (2) males and (2) females.
- Questions will be based on the following topics: FAU, national governing councils, fraternity and sororities, and anything found in the FAU Owl book.
- There will be multiple rounds with questions increasing in difficulty.
- In general play each team will have a designated "buzz-in" person and that person will ring a bell. The first team that the moderator hears will have 30 seconds to answer. If found to be incorrect the team forfeits and the remaining teams will have an opportunity to buzz in.
- No team may answer a question before the question has been completely read. Any team that does so forfeits their ability to answer that question.
- Moderator decision is final.
- The top 3 teams will receive points.
- In the event of a tie we will move into sudden death questions which are done with one individual and by secret ballot.

Breezeway Spirit & Penny War

Tuesday, March 23rd, 2010 10:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m.

Breezeway Spirit Competition

On Tuesday, March 23, 2010 there will be a table made available to each team. You can gain access to your table beginning at 8 a.m. that morning. You will be asked to decorate your table and meet the following items:

- Must incorporate and clearly showcase the Greek Week 2010 theme “School of Rock”
- Must incorporate and showcase Greek unity.
- Must display your team name.
- You may not permanently affix any thing to the breezeway or chalk on any surface.

At a point between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. your table and spirit will be judged. The three top scoring teams will receive points. In the event of a tie, a decision will be rendered based on monies collected.

Pocket Change Challenge

In addition to decorating your table, you will be asked to collect change for our pocket change competition. During your time in the breezeway you will be attempting to raise money for our Greek Week philanthropy. The following rules apply:

- The Greek Week Executive board will supply you with an appropriate container.
- Your container must be visible and accessible throughout the duration of the event. Should a committee member find that your container was not visible or accessible you will face disqualification from the event.
- You must collect pocket change. Pennies and paper money are positive points and all silver change is negative points and will be deducted from your total.
 - Example: Team 1 has 75 pennies and 1 dollar in their bucket, they have 175 points. Team 2 drops 1 quarter in their bucket, worth 25 points. Team 1 now has 150 points.
- At 2 p.m. all collecting will come to a close and totals will be rendered.
- You may not remove money, in any form, from your bucket.
- Checks will be accepted, as another form of paper money, worth positive points made payable to the College Panhellenic Association.
- The top three teams with the highest point values will receive points.

Education Night

Tuesday, March 23rd, 2010 7:30 p.m.

Education Night will take place on Tuesday March 23rd, 2010. We will have Dr. Tait Martin who is part of the CAMPUSPEAK family as the Guest Speaker. He will be giving a presentation on Breaking Through the Clutter: Cleaning Up Your Campus Image. This event is not worth place points, however, you will receive points for attendance. Check-in will begin thirty (30) minutes before the speaker and close promptly at 7:30 p.m. Points will be awarded to teams based on percentages. Dress is business casual.

Breaking Through the Clutter: Cleaning Up Your Campus Image

Is the exposure your group getting really the exposure you want? Are you taking the smartest approach to managing the way your community views your organization? Is your group's campus image holding it back? Dr. Tait Martin offers the most insightful and instructive keynote and workshop tailored specifically to helping student organizations clean up their campus image.

This isn't your typical "public relations" approach. Tait uses years of experience as a communication and marketing professional to help student leaders understand how their group's actions and image affect potential members, administrators, community members, and other students on campus. Tait teaches participants how to use the best marketing tools to grow and energize their organization.

Students will take away an ability to shape a positive campus brand, with an emphasis on effective language and the positive, proactive use of social networking tools. Tait is conversational, and he relates easily to the practical concerns of student leaders. He will custom-build his presentation to fit your needs, whether you are doing a focused student government retreat, a session on image for your fraternities and sororities, or a staff training session for campus advisors.

Attention! Attention!

A photo of our fraternity & sorority community will be taken Wednesday at the outdoor amphitheatre (behind Arts & Letters). Please wear your letters and send as many members from your chapter as possible.

3/24/10 at 4 p.m.

See you all there!

Greeks Got Talent

Thursday March 25th, 2010 7 p.m.

Event Description:

Each team of Greek organizations may perform a skit, stepping, singing, strolling, dancing, lip-syncing, hopping, marching, etc. with no fewer than three people participating in the performance. The purpose of the event is to demonstrate Greek Unity and to showcase and exhibit the blended talents from each organization. At least one person from each organization paired MUST be represented during the Talent Night. Failure to do so will result in a disqualification from the event.

Event Rules:

1. Performances will be judged on the basis of quality of presentation, talent, originality, and creativity.
2. Timing:
 - a. Each team will have exactly a 5 minute set up, 10 minute performance, and a 2 minute take down/removal of props utilized during the performance.
 - b. Teams will be disqualified for exceeding the 10 minute performance time limit.
2. The Greek Week theme MUST be incorporated in each group's individual performance. The theme for Greek Week 2010 is "School of Rock"!
3. There is a 50 person maximum per team.
4. A finalized cd with your music must be submitted at the commencement of your dress rehearsal. Each individual team will be held responsible for setting up, tearing down, and cleaning up any props used for their performance.
5. Any necessary props will be provided by individual teams and corresponding chapters.
6. Clothing, props, or items on stage must be appropriate. No clothing, props, or items portraying or displaying vulgar themes, images, or messages will be allowed.
7. All of the music used for the performance must be on 1 CD. Each team must designate 1 person as the sound technician (the person who will assist with the music during the performance).
8. Inclusions of profanity, lewd conduct, obscene gestures or scenes, or any other inappropriate acts or behaviors will result in an immediate disqualification from the event and possible punitive action by the Office of Greek Life.
9. All participating teams must perform a mandatory dress rehearsal. Dress rehearsal will occur Wednesday March 24th at a time selected during the March 3rd representative meeting.
10. No contact between the performers and the judges is allowed.
11. The judges will be the sole scoring body and will turn in all score sheets at the end of the program.
12. Participants are individually responsible for obtaining the necessary permission for the broadcast of copyrighted materials.

Up 'til Dawn

Friday, March 26th 2010 7 p.m. – 1 a.m.

One night. One cause. Our campus.

That's the motto of Up 'til Dawn®, a student-led, student-run philanthropic program in which college students nationwide raise funds for and awareness of St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. The program engages participants in fundraising and awareness activities that culminate with one night of fun at the Up 'til Dawn event to celebrate their success and honor the patients and families of St. Jude. Up 'til Dawn unites students, faculty, sponsors and the surrounding community in a goal to help the kids of St. Jude. Since 1998, more than 370 schools have joined in the cause to raise more than $24 million for the hospital. The increase in service-learning initiatives on campuses nationwide is a clear indicator that college students today are looking for a way to give back to their communities. Up 'til Dawn gives students that chance by providing an opportunity to make a real difference in the lives of children – so that they can grow up and go to college, too.

Each member organization of each team will be asked to form a team and participate in Up 'til Dawn (UtD). All information regarding how to formulate a team can be found in the UtD information packet. Up 'til Dawn is a letter sending program to raise funds and awareness for St. Jude and its research. Within the program there are two opportunities for you to earn points:

- The top three teams who collectively earn the most spirit points through the UtD spirit point competition (See the UtD information packet) will receive points.
- The top three teams who collectively send the most letters will receive points.
 - Each individual participant is asked to bring thirty-five (35) actual names and address of family and friends to send letters too.

This event is not run by the Greek Week planning committee; you are merely receiving points for the levels of your participation. Should you have any questions please refer to you UtD packet and the respective individuals of that committee.

While you will be registered and be competing as individual chapters your totals will be combined by teams.*

Service Project: Haiti Earthquake Relief

CLINTON BUSH HAITI FUND

DONATE NOW

Or text "QUAKE"
to 20222 to donate $10

The earthquake that rocked the coast of Haiti killed or injured a devastating number of people. Even more were left in need of aid, making this one of the major humanitarian emergencies in the history of the Americas. In the aftermath of the disaster, President Barack Obama asked President

Bill Clinton and President George W. Bush to raise funds for immediate, high-impact relief and long-term recovery efforts to help those who are most in need of assistance. In response, the two Presidents established the Clinton Bush Haiti Fund (CBHF) to respond to unmet needs in the country, foster economic opportunity, improve the quality of life over the long term for those affected, and assist the people of Haiti as they rebuild their lives and “build back better.” The Clinton Bush Haiti Fund will do this by working with and supporting the efforts of reputable 501(c)(3) nongovernmental and nonprofit organizations. Presidents Clinton and Bush oversee the CBHF through their respective nonprofit organizations, the William J. Clinton Foundation and Communities Foundation of Texas. One hundred percent of donations received by the Clinton Foundation and the Communities Foundation of Texas go directly to relief efforts. For more information, visit www.clintonbushhaitifund.org.
